Equity, Payroll & Adjusting Journal Entries

Alright. Moving on down the road, you just completed accounts receivable and accounts payable with a 100%, so now we're going to move on to equity, payroll, and adjusting journal entries, or AJEs for short. Now, we're going to continue to use that workbook, you're never going to get to leave that thing, but also, down below we've got the directions on what you're going to be using inside of that workbook and we've got another special thing for you. That's an email that you have received from your client, so make sure and download that document because it's going to be used as well as the workbook that you have. Again, this is all about equity, it's all about payroll, and adjusting journal entries, so keep moving on toward your certificate of completion inside of Bookkeeper Business Launch.
